Dear Mr. Flatau:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of August 10 enclosing the copy of Export Trade in which your article, "A Suggestion for Meeting the Communist Threat in Latin America," appeared.

We have read your article with a great deal of interest and have passed it on to some of our specialists for further study. We appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending this material to us.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Acting Executive Officer

Mr. Allen Dulles
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

As a long-time observer of the Latin American scene and as a wartime member of A.I.C. I take the liberty of sending you a copy of EXPORT TRADE which contains my most recent article on Latin America entitled, "A Suggestion for Meeting the Communist Threat in Latin America".

I trust that this may be of interest to you.

Very sincerely,
